Public Meeting To Protest Against Factory

During discussions on the proposed ICI dye factory last night Altona Shire Council decided to:

- Hold a public meeting on Monday night.
- Meet Mr Frazer MLA, Minister for State Development on Tuesday.
- Seek an early deputation to the Premier, Mr Bolte.

Introducing a motion to seek an early hearing by the premier, Cr C. McIntyre said 'we should see the premier, we should get an answer from him.'

Cr Cresser: He came down here last week and did not come to see us. It would have been only common decency to talk to us.

Cr Logan: They are already retrenching staff in the Explosives Reserve. We want the factory here but we want it in the right place.

Cr Frazer: I saw Mr Morris who comes from Burnie in Tasmania who told me Altona and the whole bay is in grave danger. Nineteen miles around Burnie is discolored and the area which was a tourist resort is now no longer considered as such. Burnie is on the open sea and it is considered the effects at Altona, which is on an enclosed bay, will be much worse. Effects would be felt all around Port Phillip bay.

Cr Frazer went on to say he had ascertained ICI had considered another area at the corner of Kororoit Creek Road and Geelong Road but finally decided the land of 100 acres was too small.

Cr Logan: Sunshine council has discussed the matter and are concerned that the government can override a council.

Cr McIntyre: I move we call a public meeting and ask neighboring councils to be represented.

Meeting will be held in the Lifesavers hall on Monday night.

BOARD NOT IN FAVOR OF INDUSTRY

It is believed the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works is opposing the introduction of the dye factory on grounds of inadequate drainage.

COUNCILLOR RETIRES

Cr Robert Frazer this week announced his retirement from Altona Shire Council. He has been a councillor since August 1957 and will have served three years by next August.

Two other independent councillors Crs McIntyre and Watson also finish their three years term in August. No official announcement has yet been made of the team to contest the three vacancies.

(To the Editor)

Sir—I wish to announce that I will not be seeking re-election at the forthcoming council elections in August.

It has been both a privilege and a pleasure to act as councillor during the very important initial years of establishment of our fine shire and I thank the good people who elected me to office in 1957. I trust that my activity during my term of office has honored the confidence placed in me.

R. FRAZER, JP

Threw Glass On Road

Charged with throwing glass in a public place was Henry St. Francis Westthorpe, of 37 Cecil Street, Williamstown, aged 20 years. Constable Forrest told the court that at 6.45 p.m. on June 18 he saw defendant in Ferguson Street, in the company of two other youths. The three walked into a cafe. Witness said he saw Westthorpe approach the counter and ask the proprietor something. He shook his head. Defendant repeated the performance, and again the proprietor shook his head. Westthorpe then walked outside the shop, looked through the window, picked up two bottles of beer and then threw them on the footpath. When asked for his reason defendant said the bag was wet and the bottles fell out. Constable Forrest obtained a broom from the shop and told Westthorpe to sweep up the glass, but he swept it on to the roadway and over a parked car. When asked to do it properly, Westthorpe said, "Damn it. I'm not going to sweep up any more." Defendant claimed he was waiting for the cafe proprietor to get him a cup of coffee, walked outside and the bag broke with the bottles in it. He swept up all but some small pieces and did not pick them up because he feared he might cut his fingers. Mr R. Frowse, S.M., said it was stupid behaviour and fined defendant £2, in default three days in goal.

Drank Beer Near Hall

James Beckett, of 52 Rose St., Altona; Cecil J. Baker, of 31 Mount Street, Altona and Ray Fry of 93 The Esplanade, Altona, were charged with drinking intoxicating liquor within 100 yards of a public dance hall. Constable Neil John McIntyre, of Williamstown, told the court that he saw the three defendants a 9.30 p.m. on May 18 in a car near the Williamstown Town Hall. Baker had a bottle in his hand and was calling out, "Come and have a drink." When asked for his reason for drinking there, he said he thought he was allowed to. Both Fry and Beckett said the same thing. None of the defendants appeared in court and were fined £3 each.

Youth Club

Football

Last Sunday afternoon Altona played Niddrie Youth Club in a social match at the Grant Reserve. A hard fought game finally resulted in a narrow win for Niddrie. Altona boys led comfortably at half time but fell away in the third quarter at the end of which were one point behind. They failed to recover but were by no means disgraced.

General Activities

Arising from the visit of the VAYC representative at the last general meeting an activities committee embracing leaders and instructors of the various sections has been formed. This will result in an overall programme being organised to meet the needs of the growing membership of the club.

Marching Girls Committee

A Marching Girls social committee will operate for the purpose of raising funds for that particular section. This committee is separate from the social committee and ladies auxiliary of the club.

Soft Toys Class

Any girls interested in making soft toys are asked to contact Mrs Brown at the girls classes on Friday nights.

Junior Football

On Sunday Laverton came to Altona to meet a far superior side and for the spectators a one sided game.

Altona continually peppered the goals in the first quarter when scores were Altona 6.13 to Laverton nil.

With much more of the play on type of football in the second quarter Altona finished this term with 13.23, to Laverton 1 point.

Through good football by Cox in the centre and Arnold at full forward Altona pushed further ahead.

The game continued in the same fashion in the last quarter final scores being Altona 30.38 to Laverton 1 point.

Goalkeepers were Arnold 14, Black 4, Eaglander, Oswald and Cox 2 each, Magee, Meddings Sutherland and Keen 1 each.

Best on ground Cox, Arnold Eaglander.

Next match will be at Werribee against Werribee South.

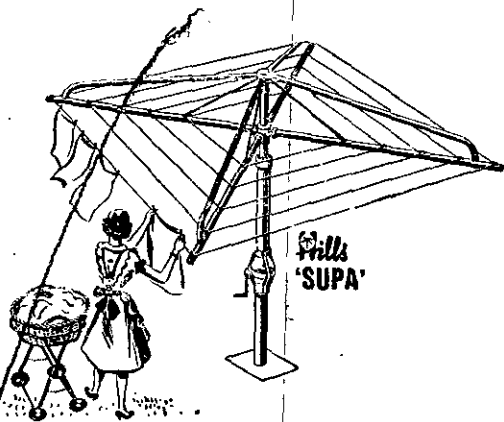

The rock n' roll dance held last Friday night was very successful and another is to be held on July 11.

Big Win To Altona Over Rovers

In perfect football conditions, Altona, playing at home, overwhelmed Williamstown Rovers to defeat them by 191 points!

The game was a repeat of the first game of the season when Altona played Rovers at Newport.

It was good to see Laurie Scala back in the team. This was his first game for the season and a few more matches should set him right. His 9 goals for the day still proves that he is deadly in front of goals.

Dick Buckingham turned on another good game. Bill Devereaux dominated in the centre and Coach Nielson, back in his old position at centre half back, turned the Rovers' attacks consistently to put Altona into attack.

CHEMIST'S DIARY

The Australian Diet

By R. and W. FRAZER

The title of today's talk is in the form of a question, "How good is the average Australian Diet?" At once most of our readers will answer, "Australians on the whole are very well fed. Our country produces all kinds of meats, many kinds of fruits, a good variety of vegetables. We have more wheat than we can use and more milk than we need so that each year we send overseas many tons of butter."

Our readers may also refer to the adequate production of eggs and cheese and fish and the availability of many other nutritious foods.

All of these contentions are true, for ours is a great food-producing nation. However, the question asked is not "How much food do we produce as a nation?", but "How good is the average Australian diet?"

In other words, do we select from the nation's produce the items of food most essential to health? Do we consume them?

It is well that we should ponder these matters. One authority in realm of nutrition has said "Tell me what you eat and I will tell you what you are."

While that may be an overstatement, it remains true that the physical health of any person and to some extent his mental and nervous stability are affected greatly by the foods which he eats.

So it matters greatly that we should examine this question of the average Australian diet.

At the outset let us rid ourselves of any feeling of complacency of any smug belief that the average Australian diet is perfect, or even good.

Each successive nutritional survey which is conducted reveals widespread deficiencies in the diets of a vast number of our people.

For example, in recent surveys there has been revealed deficiencies of certain vitamins, notably Vitamin C and some elements of the B vitamin group.

There has been revealed of one large centre of population a common deficiency of iron. In another state the deficiency of iodine has led to school children being given regular free issues of iodine-containing tablets.

Now, the question naturally arises as to why such deficiencies of diet should be found in a country which produces such a wide variety of foodstuffs and in which the people, in most instances, are not underfed.

To begin with, let us be clear that a person can receive an adequate amount of food and still be undernourished.

"How much food?" is important, of course, but so is "What kind of food?"

Some of the deficiencies to which we referred as occurring in some Australian districts were found in farming communities where it would be unlikely that there would be any shortage in the amount of food consumed.

For example deficiency of vitamin C occurred in several milk producing areas.

The explanation was given that while these areas produced millions of gallons of milk it was not common to find that persons engaged in dairying drank much milk. So a valuable source of vitamin C was lost to them.

Similarly we could instance the vitamin B1 deficiency considered to be the commonest of all forms of mild deficiency in the average Australian diet. Our cereals, such as wheat and oats in their cruder forms contain valuable amounts of vitamin B1. But it is almost entirely removed in the process of making flour.

And if readers will pause to reflect on just how much white flour is used in the various spread deficiency of vitamin B1 explains itself.

Why Labor Should Control the Council

By Labor Spokesman
John Ginifer

With municipal elections looming and Labor putting up strong candidates the usual anti Labor catch cry will be heard: "Keep politics out of council." But when the position is analysed it will be found that politics have not been very far away from the Altona or any other council.

Over the years the Liberals and Independents (if such a species exist in modern democracy), have found it expedient to band together in ever-changing and sometimes curious combinations to enable one or other of the groups to dominate the council. This continuous struggle for power has proved costly to Altona ratepayers.

If returned with a majority Labor would guard against a return to these unstable coalitions and implement a positive policy based on Labor's municipal platform and planned to ensure the greatest good for the greatest number.

Labor has shown that it can be trusted with this responsibility.

bility during the past year. How has the shire fared during that time? Has it improved or gone back? Has the overall press publicity on the shire's doings been favorable or otherwise? Has there been any worthwhile improvements in your shire and finally has your rate been increased in the same ratio as wages and costs? While it is realised that in some parts of the shire the answers will not all be favorable, Labor is confident that, taken by and large, the ratepayers are reasonably satisfied and there is a better community spirit abroad today than ever before.

Many of the things most required are outside the council's scope but a Labor council would exercise its energies on fulfilling projects of the following nature:

A number of kindergarten and infant welfare centres will have to be erected in convenient locations adjoining residential areas. The establishment and furnishing of children's playgrounds will receive the attention of a Labor council. The proposed new Altona hospital has the support of all Labor councillors.

Now that the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works has been invested with the power to impose higher rates to implement the Town Planning Scheme including the building of bridges, roads, roundabouts and the like which could cost many millions, Labor will continue with strong, virile representation at the Board.

In order to secure Altona as a progressive municipality for you and your children's future return Labor at the forthcoming shire elections by voting:

John Ginifer 1, Vin Hearn 2, Stan McIntosh 3.

Authorised by John Ginifer, Estelle Court, Altona North.

What is Happening in Japan

President Eisenhower did not go to Japan as previously planned. Why? During the past few weeks the Japanese people have been rioting.

What is this Treaty of Mutual Co-operation and Security signed on January 19, 1960, by Prime Minister Kishi and President Eisenhower?

The day Mr Kishi left for the United States of America, 40,000 people held a demonstration in Tokyo. From dawn to dusk, the crowd streamed to Kishi's residence. Finally thousands of armed police hustled him on to a plane 13 hours ahead of time. Does this bear out the statement of the editorial of "The Age" (7/6/60) that "Mr Kishi carried a solid mandate from his electors when he went to Washington to conclude the agreement?"

In spite of the unpopularity of the Treaty, it was signed.

Said the "London Times": "Even leaving aside the intensified campaign against the Treaty... there is little enthusiasm in Japan for the arrangement."

Under the Treaty U.S. Forces can occupy Japan for another 10 years establishing more bases.

There are already 700 U.S. bases in Japan and neither the Japanese Government nor people know the "inside" of these bases or whether they contain atomic weapons, nor have they the right to veto any changes.

The Japanese have no assurance whatever that there is no stockpile of H bombs in Japan. The Treaty repeatedly refers to the "threat of armed attack." Apart from this huge concentration of U.S. Forces, the Japanese Army is growing apace.

The Japanese Defence Board plans to spend this year 1,000 million yen on a motorised nuclear division and tens of thousands of secondhand U.S.-made Lockheed fighters are to be purchased costing 100,000 million yen. The huge war industries of Japan are strengthened and militarism and facism are on the march, that same militarism that 20 years ago brought torture, death and disaster to many Australians, to China and the peoples of South-East Asia as well as to Japanese people themselves.

Did you know that Kishi is a convicted war criminal? He was sent to jail in 1945... was released by the U.S. Occupation Forces; now the Prime Minister.

On Mr Kishi's return from the USA he attempted to railroad the Treaty through the Diet. As people rioted outside, the Opposition Parties sat down in the corridors of the House to bar the way of the Speaker to the Chair. Kishi called 500 police to eject the Opposition, then the Opposition walked out. Then Mr Kishi with even some members of his Party missing, put through the Treaty.

How would we feel if this had happened in Australia? Would we think it was a popular Bill?

When World War II ended in 1945, Japan was occupied by the USA. The San Francisco Peace Treaty was signed September 1951; was concluded with the USA and other Allies, but not with the USSR, China or India. The US occupation of Japan has extended to this day.

Article 9 of the Japanese Constitution (unique in the world) of 1947 says, "aspiring sincerely to an international peace based on justice and order, the Japanese people forever renounce war as a sovereign right of the nation and the threat to use force as means of settling international disputes. In order to accomplish the aim of the preceding paragraph, land sea and air forces, as well as other war potential, will never be maintained. The right of belligerency of the State will not be recognised."

So here is the crux of the matter. The Japanese people do not want the Treaty, they do not want war. They have experienced the A bomb they know what it means. They are to a man against atomic weapons and they are rioting to show their opposition to this Treaty which could involve them in war once again; which would cause Japanese Forces to be sent out of Japan in suppression of South-East Asian peoples, in attack on China—on Australia—12,000,000 people signed a petition against the Treaty.

Since the U2 incident the Japanese people have heeded the warning of the USSR regarding U2 planes operating from their air fields. On September 24, 1959, a U2 jet plane made a forced landing at Fujisawa. The US admitted it was a US plane but failed to say why this jet, able to fly many hours in the stratosphere, was painted black and bore no identification.

Which is Australia's best defence? A militarist Japan armed to the teeth with atomic weapons and able to send her Forces anywhere; or a democratic Japan, faithful to her Peace Constitution, demilitarised, with no atomic weapons and enjoying friendly relations with all her Asian neighbours?

Motorist Fined £100

Alfred John Simpson, transport driver of 49 Farn Street Newport was charged with driving under the influence and driving without a licence. He was represented by Mr I. Gray.

Simpson was in an accident in Ferguson St, Williamstown, and when taken to Williamstown Police Station by Const. Nunn, he was charged with driving under the influence. He pleaded not guilty.

Simpson lost his licence on a similar charge at Werribee in 1955.

Mr R. Prowse, SM said it was not one of the worst cases he had heard, but seeing that Simpson had been convicted on a similar charge, he felt he should have known better.

Mr Gray said driving was defendant's livelihood and said he would lose it and asked for leniency.

Simpson was fined £10 for not having a licence (his licence was only valid in N.S.W. and the car was registered in Vic.) and on the other charge he was fined £100. He was also disqualified from obtaining a licence for three years.

Drunk and Disorderly

Edward Sweet, 66 Cecil St., Williamstown on June 15 argued that it was June 10, but police said the 15th. Constable Forrest saw Sweet at 4.45 p.m., very drunk and staggering all over the road in Aitken St. Fined £5 or seven days, given stay of seven days to pay.

Smelga, 69 Cecil Street Williamstown, was seen on June 15 by Constable Haydon in Nelson Street, trying to direct the traffic. Fined £1 or 24 hours default.

William John Hallcroft, 129 Aitken Street, Williamstown. Constable Forrest saw him staggering across the road in Station Street, and took him to the watch house and charged him. Smelga alleged that he had asked for a doctor and had been refused one. Sgt. Allan Henry Absolom, of Williamstown Police, said he had been in the watch house at about 7 p.m. and defendant had called out and asked for a doctor. "I told him he would have to pay for a doctor," said Sgt. Absolom, "and asked which one he wanted. He said Dr Long. I tried to ring Dr Long but could not get an answer. I asked Smelga if he wanted another doctor, but he replied, 'Let it go.' I saw defendant when he first came in and he was very much under the influence." Fined £1, default 24 hours.

Joseph Adams, 3 Rupert St., Newport. On June 18 Const. Forrest saw him in Nelson Place lying prostrate on a bus seat. Adams was very drunk and had to be helped to the police station. Defendant said he had been working all day, then had some drinks and was unable to take them. Fined £1, default 24 hours.

Drove Through Lights

Janek Kurpiel, of 101 New St., South Kingsville, was charged with driving over a traffic control signal whilst the lights were against him.

A witness, Thomas Charles Haskell, of 2 Berry Street, Yarraville, said that at 4 p.m. on November 20 last year he was driving west on Reed Street, Spotswood, when he came to the Melbourne Rd intersection he saw the traffic lights turn red and waited because he had wanted to turn into that street.

Witness said he saw a Holden sedan come down Williamstown Road. Two children were at the crossing and he saw the Holden hit them.

Kurpiel was represented by Mr Kennedy, who said that the lights were green to the traffic in Melbourne Road and that Haskell could not have seen the lights from where his car was stopped.

There were two other cars in Melbourne Road but Kurpiel did not get their names and addresses.

Mr R. Prowse, SM, said the lights were placed there for the protection of children at the school, and he convicted Kurpiel fining him £10 with £2/10/- costs
